Hampton's Tactics.

NEW YORK, April 18.—The Times' Columbia special says when the Republican State officers attempted to enter their rooms in the State house they found seats on the doors and constables present ordered to arrest any one attempting to enter. A protest was promptly sent to Hampton. As judicial proceedings are now pending to settle the business the Republicans now excluded have a clear title till the quo warranto case against them is decided.

The St. Louis Disaster.

ST. LOUIS April 17.—No more bodies have been found in the Southern Hotel ruins, and but little property of any kind was taken from them to-day. Workmen were withdrawn this afternoon in consequence of rain and dangerous condition of the walls. These will be pulled down to-morrow and search resumed. The hotel safe was not raised to-day. It is said to contain a large amount of money and other valuables belonging to guests.

Geo. J. Jones, treasurer of Debarrs Opera House, sold at auction on change several tickets for the benefit of the destitute servant girls of the Southern Hotel. Two tickets brought one hundred dollars each, and one was knocked down to the Globe-Democrat for fifty. The benefit promises to be very generous.

ST. LOUIS, April 18.—At the coroner's inquest investigation of the hotel fire this morning no additional evidence of the origin of the fire, etc., was brought out. John K. Ruse, professor of mathematics in Washington University, gave a graphic description of the escape of himself and wife.

No bodies were found in the Southern hotel ruins to-day. Both safes were taken out, the contents uninjured. In the largest safe was a large amount of property of different kinds belonging to guests and boarders. Among it were $17,000 worth of diamonds, which were delivered to the owner. Some of the interior walls of the hotel are in a very shaky condition to-day, in consequence of which work is suspended. This afternoon about 4 o'clock

BOSS TWEED'S CONFESSION.

Criticisms and Denials.

The Wounded Birds Demand Evidence.

Sweeney's Booty.

Tweed and the Press.

NEW YORK, April 18.—The Tribune's local says Tweed positively refused to see any of the many representatives of the press who during the day sought interviews with him at Ludlow street jail.

Tweed's Confession.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 17.—Tweed's confession was handed to the Attorney-General's deputy by Townsend, Tweed's counsel to-day. The statement fills some 50 pages of manuscript and Attorney-General Fairchild says he will immediately take up the consideration of the document, giving it his earnest attention. Before making any of the confession public, he will demand of Tweed evidence to prove the charges against persons whom Tweed implicates. Fairchild has not examined the confession as yet, but a note received by him from Townsend this afternoon says there is some truth in the World's statement of the contents of the paper. Townsend, it is said denys having given any information of the disclosures made by Tweed.

Denying Tweed's Confession.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 17.—Senator Woodin made a speech in the Senate to-night, denying the allegations made concerning him in Tweed's confession. He concluded by reading a resolution that Messrs. ——— be and they are hereby appointed a committee to take testimony, with power to send for persons and papers and, if need be, to sit in New York City, and fully investigate whether he ever received or promised to receive any portion of moneys as Tweed charges, and report to the Senate within 10 days the testimony, together with their conclusions. The committee consists of the following members: Carpenter

LOUISIANA.

Situation at New Orleans Unchanged.

Proceedings of the Packard Caucus.

Warmoth Eulogizes Packard.

Still Resolving.

NEW ORLEANS, April 17.—The Nicholls House to-day adopted a resolution by 68 to 11 giving effect to the caucus proceedings of last night. The resolution announces that 15 Republicans are solemnly declared to legally occupy their seats.

The Louisiana Legislature.

NEW ORLEANS, April 17.—The caucus plan cordially invites 35 Republicans to take their seats, and asserting that seven other Republicans will be admitted subject to contest. It provides further that the organization of the House shall remain unchanged, and the contest will be made of the seven seats in which Republicans are seated until the next session. If this proposition is accepted by the Republicans, the House would be composed of 57 Republicans and 62 Democrats. Mr. A. H. Leonard, of Shreveport, member of the Packard House from Caddo, said to-night there was not the slightest probability of Republicans accepting this proposition, and Packard says it is an admirable arrangement.

Commissioners are in session to-night, and at 9 P. M., were in consultation with Messrs. McMillan, Leonard, Twitchell and other prominent Republicans.

NOTE—It does not now appear very clearly that the commission favors the Nicholls House proposition.

Packard Respectfully Declines to be "Let Out."

The Tribune's New Orleans special says: Two commissioners visited Packard to-day and asked his assent to the basis of compromise already approved by the Nicholls Legislature. One told him this would let him out easily. Packard said he didn't want to be let out, but wanted to be let in, and asked that

Mr. Nicholls' legislature, "why in God's name let us know it beforehand. If you have determined you will not compromise at all, let us say so in plain terms and stand together till the issue comes. If each man will sign his name and pledge his word of honor to stand by this Government until honorably discharged by the Governor of this State, we will have no difficulty in waiting and putting the integrity of the President of the United States to the test, and then whatever happens we shall at least have so acted as to save our self respect. The following resolutions offered by Gov. Warmouth were adopted:

Resolved, That we have received the proposition of adjustment forwarded to us by the honorable gentlemen of the President's Commission, and having considered it carefully, feel obliged to decline to accept its terms.

Resolved, That we disavow any purpose to trade in the questions at issue between the two State governments and will consent to no trade whatever. If we are to have a legislature organized on the principle that persons elected at the ballot box should constitute each House prima facie, we know of nothing which gives our Democratic brethren a right to make the exception to that principle, although it may change the power of the respective parties and give the Democratic party the majority which they would not otherwise have.

Resolved, That these resolutions be forwarded to the honorable gentlemen of the President's Commission.

The Nicholls Plan Rejected.

NEW ORLEANS, April 18.—A joint caucus of members of the Packard House and Senate, 63 members present, on motion of Gov. Warmoth, unanimously rejected the proposition of the Democrats and resolved to stand by Gov. Packard to the last.

The Commission Still Hopeful.

The Times' New Orleans special says the commission still profess to be hopeful of a settlement but there is good reason to believe in reality they are disgusted and disheartened. It is now more probable than ever that they will be obliged to leave without having effected any adjustment. In that event it is generally believed the President will at once withdraw the troops, and leave Packard and Nicholls to settle their own difficulties in their

as an agreement, in virtue of England's declaration, is annulled; Russia, whose hands are thus freed, will endeavor to accomplish Europe's mission in regard to Turkey.

Not the Remotest Chance of Peace.

A Vienna special reports that Count Andrassy entertains no further hope of peace, but trusts the campaign may be short, so that neutral powers may force Turkey and Russia to stop in time to prevent the struggle from becoming general. Certain cabinets seem to entertain hope, but Count Andrassy sees not the remotest chance of peace.

Heavy Emigration Expected.

A Berlin special says, 200,000 German Colonists in Southern Russia intend to immigrate to Brazil and other parts of America, to avoid draft into the army, and emigration has already begun.

War not Settled on.

The Post's Berlin correspondent says: The statement that war is definitely decided on is not yet confirmed. A fresh circular from Prince Gortschakoff to the powers has been despatched from St. Petersburg. The Post announces officially that Count Schouvaloff leaves London on leave of absence in the event of the termination of negotiations recently pending. This implies no change in the respective attitude of England and Russia. On the contrary the journey may lead to an ultimate understanding.

Note to the Powers.

A dispatch from St. Petersburg says the note to the Powers has been confided to special messengers for the different capitals, and will probably be presented Monday.

Roumania Mobilizing.

BUCHAREST, April 17.—Orders have been prepared with a view to rendering the mobilization of the Roumania army possible. Much anxiety prevails regarding the design attributed to the Turks of occupying Roumanian territory near Kalefat, even before the Russians cross the Pruth. The Government has ordered stopped a telegram announcing the arrival of troops.

THE TURKS IN EUROPE.

By the present complications in Europe and the new and important results sure to grow out of them, a fresh impetus has been given to historical inquiry into matters likely to throw light on the nature of the contest. Among the contributors to this investigation is Edward A. Freeman, widely known as an historical writer of large and comprehensive powers, who has published a vigorous essay on the Turks in Europe, which is reproduced as one of the books of Harper's Half Hour Series. It is an argument in a nut shell, to obtain which the ordinary reader, but for this essay, would be driven to many voluminous works, and perhaps fail at last to catch the main idea. The Turks are simply a foreign people, a race of conquerors, who have established and are maintaining a military encampment in the southeast of Europe. And the head of the Turkish government is not the national sovereign of the people, but simply the chief of the horde of foreign enemies established among them and over them. The Turks belong to a race totally different from the masses of the people, and though it is five hundred years since the conquest, have in no degree assimilated with them.

The Turk, as this writer remarks, has never [illegible] European fellowship; indeed, it [illegible] he should. His rule is the rule of the conqueror of the middle ages; it is a government of brute force maintained by an alien enemy over a [illegible] people. All the reforms the [illegible] government has promised are in[illegible] our author declares, to mislead [illegible] cannot reform because its religion [illegible] And since the Turk came into [illegible] and remains as a robber, [illegible] that it is time he be dealt [illegible] deserts. No doubt it is [illegible] that is moving the English [illegible] different attitude it is oc[illegible] to Turkey, as compared [illegible] when England was Turkey's [illegible], indeed, in his mas[illegible] of the causes of the Crimean [illegible] France first coerced the Porte [illegible] offensive to Russia, which [illegible] hostilities, and then tricked [illegible] an alliance for the defense of [illegible] of the rulers of France [illegible] a great war in order to [illegible] at home and throughout [illegible] the prodigious crimes by which [illegible] had become Emperor. It [illegible] England was the dupe of the [illegible] keeping out of the present [illegible]

Who can tell [illegible] experience such a man must [illegible] before he brings himself to the [illegible] his hand against himself?

[illegible] has attended the labors of the [illegible] Commission in the propagation of salmon [illegible] at the East, from eggs obtained in [illegible] rivers. Out of a lot of 160,000 eggs [illegible] treated at their aquarium, the loss [illegible] only 17,800. The fry was distributed in [illegible] rivers and brooks that enter Long [illegible] Sound. Livingstone Stone, in his re[illegible] of salmon breeding operations on St. [illegible] river, says that under the treatment he [illegible] almost every egg, three weeks after [illegible], was seen to have a fish in it. [illegible] method was simply to take half a panful of eggs, add the milt, and stir up with the hand, as one would stir a pan of flour. Almost one hundred per cent. of them would hatch.

The San Francisco papers contain a full account of the examination made in the United States [illegible] of the alleged default of Hon. D. W. Cheesman, late Treasurer of the United States at that city. Not only was his exoneration complete, but it was established that there is a handsome balance due him from the government. Mr. Cheesman, it is scarcely necessary to inform our readers, is a member of the legislative assembly of Oregon, and in a single session established a reputation for dignity and usefulness. He has been greatly annoyed by the treatment he received in connection with official matters in San Francisco.

City from 1856 to 1860; served as clerk of the United States Court for Washington county; was also Judge of that county from 1850 to 1862. Deceased also served a term in the State Legislature in 1862. He received the appointment of clerk of the U. S. Court for this district in 1863, which position of trust and honor he has filled faithfully and efficiently up to the time of his unhappy death.

In respect to the memory of the dead, U. S. Circuit Court met yesterday morning and immediately adjourned.

We cannot close this article more appropriately than by quoting the following brief but fitting tribute to the departed, taken from the annual address delivered by Hon. M. P. Deady, before the Oregon Pioneer Association, on the occasion of its third reunion held near Salem:

> Wilcox has served in the legislature and held many other responsible positions with the highest integrity. With his ability and popularity, he lacked audacity or industry, or both, to have long since been one of the foremost men in Oregon. But perhaps he has chosen the better part. "Uneasy lies the head that wears a crown."

In this their deep affliction, the family has the sympathy of the whole community.

TO YOUNG MEN.

One of the most influential and active spirits in the temperance movement, recently set on foot in Portland, sends the following under the nom de plume of "Good Hope:"

> To the Young Men of Portland, and Especially those who are Strangers or without Permanent Homes—Brothers: The Portland Temperance Association seeks to promote your moral welfare and your social happiness. Its members extend to you, one and all, the hand of fellowship. They would save you from the many temptations of this city, and help you maintain your manhood. If you are far from home and friends, do not forget the hopes and prayers of those who cherish you. The maintenance of a good and virtuous character is your only assurance of true success. Resist the intoxicating glass and turn aside from the paths which lead to degradation and death. Come to our Saturday evening temperance meetings and sign the pledge, and take a noble stand for temperance. Good and true men and women will cordially welcome your coming, and do all they can to help you. Last Saturday evening a new room, adjoining the large and pleasant room of the Young Men's Christian Association, was opened for your especial benefit as a cheerful place for social entertainment. It is provided with tables, and with games of chess, checkers, backgammon, dominoes and other social games. You can spend a pleasant evening there with your friends at any time. The room will be open for your use six evenings in the week till 10 o'clock. Papers and magazines are liberally provided for your use in the large reading room, and also stationery for all who desire to write to their friends. Come to our temperance meeting next Saturday evening, and we will promise you an enjoyable entertainment. There is a grand work which you can do, and we will gladly help you do it. Rally around the temperance flag, boys!

AMUSEMENTS.

PROF. TAYLOR.—This noted prestidigitateur and illusionist will give four performances at Oro Fino Theater, commencing Monday evening, 23d inst. He will be assisted by the accomplished artist Mlle La Grand, who will appear in the wonderful aerial suspension and second sight. Taylor's Royal Italian marionette troupe will appear each evening. At the close of each evening's entertainment 100 useful and valuable presents will be distributed.

THE SINGERS.—The Jubilee Singers gave the last of a series of three concerts at Taylor street church last evening to the largest and most appreciative audience they have before had at that place. We but speak the sentiment of every one present when we say that this justly famous troupe, on the occasion of this their farewell concert, fairly outdid any former effort before a Portland audience. The fact that they held the large audience present spellbound, as it were, for the space of two hours speaks more in their favor than any words of ours could. The best wishes of the Christian, and in fact, of all good people of Portland, will follow them in all their future wanderings.

GRAND CONCERT SEASON.—Last evening Mr. Chas. Schultz, advance agent of Madame DeMurska, called on us. From him we learn that the party will sail from San Francisco next Saturday, and that the operatic season will commence at New Market theater Tuesday evening, 24th inst. Madame DeMurska will be assisted by the following eminent artists: Mr. Theodore Habelmann, tenor; Miss Louise Beckmann, contralto; Mr. J. T. Hill, violinist, pianist and accompanist; Signor Lorenzo Fernilli, baritone and Mr. F. Lafontaine, buffo. Their repertoire includes the following sterling operas: Martha, Lucia, Il Trovatore, Dinorah, Faustus, Magic Flute, Robert le Diable, Barbiere, Elixir d'amore, Crispino e la Comare, Rigoletto, Hamlet.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

The ladies have had something to see and talk about since the opening of Mooney & Moxley's dry goods and millinery house. Having seen the extraordinary display of millinery goods made under the supervision of Mrs. Moxley, in which she has an able assistant in Miss Parmenter, as well as the assortment of dry goods, cloths, hosiery, etc., offered under the immediate management of Mr. Mooney, we are not at all surprised. Mrs. Moxley has had many years' experience, latterly in Salem, and knows what will give the greatest satisfaction, and the same may be said of Mr. Mooney. The store has been crowded daily, in consequence of which the opening will be continued the remainder of the week. We commend the new establishment to the ladies and the public generally. Recollect the place. First near Taylor.

PERSONAL.

T. B. Merry, Esq., of the Seattle Dispatch, is in the city, en route for Walla Walla, whence he will return in a few days. He gave us a call last evening. Mr. J. W. Cochran, a correspondent of the Chicago Inter-Ocean, accompanies him.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE COUNTY SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT.

PORTLAND, Ogn., March 24, 1877.

HON. L. L. ROWLAND, Superintendent of Public Instruction: Sir—In accordance with the requirements of the law, I have the honor to submit herewith my report as superintendent of this (Multnomah) county for the year ending first Monday in March, 1877:

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES.

On the first Monday in March, 1876, there were in the hands of the district clerks school funds amounting to $8,030 12. During the year this sum has been greatly augmented from the State and county funds and from local taxes, etc. The total resources for the year aggregating no less than $64,105 84. The amount paid teachers, $36,431 50, and for buildings, repairs, furniture, etc., $18,132 45, being a total expenditure during the year of $54,563 95; which leaves a balance in the hands of the clerks, first Monday in March, 1877, of $9,402 72.

VALUE OF SCHOOL PROPERTY.

There are thirty-six organized school districts in the county, thirty-two of which have school houses and grounds, valued in the aggregate at $81,510. The value of the furniture, apparatus, globes, maps, etc., amounts to $7,333 75. There has been but one (No. 6) new school house built during the year, though several districts have made substantial improvements. The prospects, however, are very flattering that a number of good school buildings will be erected the coming year; one in East Portland, designed for a graded school; one in district seven, one in district thirty-one (large enough to accommodate from 125 to 150 pupils); one in district seventy, (Multnomah and Clackamas joint district), and one in the city of Portland. The total resources and expenditures and the value of school property, by districts, will fully appear by Exhibit A, herein attached.

EXAMINATIONS.

Since I became superintendent of this county, less than a year ago, there have been 103 applicants for teachers' certificates examined. Certificates have been granted to those deemed worthy to receive them as follows; first grade, 20; second grade, 57; rejected, 26.

In order to elevate the standard of teachers, I have discontinued the pernicious system of renewing certificates, but require each teacher when his certificate has expired by lapse of time, as well as new applicants, to go through the ordeal of an examination. Some little dissatisfaction has been expressed at this course, and because the standard has been placed too high. Of course objections to thorough examinations come only from those who are not really qualified to teach. And the frequency of the examinations depends wholly upon the ability and qualifications of the applicant. To obtain a certificate good for two years, it is only necessary to answer correctly eighty per cent of all questions asked. To obtain a certificate good for six months, sixty per cent. And the examination embraces only the common English branches, and confined almost if not entirely to general principles, while State certificates, good for six years, and life diplomas during the life of the holder, may be issued by the State Board where the applicant possesses the required qualifications. And the rules and regulations prescribed by the State Board for the issuing of certificates, both county and State, and also diplomas, are so liberal that no teacher ought to complain if they are strictly enforced; and if the law and the rules, etc., were rigidly enforced by the superintendents throughout the State the scholarship and efficiency of the teachers would be greatly improved, the poorly qualified would either advance to higher attainments or give place to more worthy successors, and the cause of education itself would receive a new impetus. Those teachers who are worthy of their high calling will encourage any movement that has been or may be inaugurated to elevate the standard of their profession, and the patrons of the public schools, at least in this county, are loudly calling for well qualified teachers. A teacher recently made application for a position in one of our country schools. The directors were well pleased with his general appearance and informed him that they desired a teacher, and if he could obtain a first class certificate they were willing to pay him $60 per month, but if he could not obtain such a certificate they did not want him at any price. A number of similar incidents has come under my observation. The people are becoming alive to their true interest in this matter.

VISITATIONS.

During the past year, I have visited most of the schools in the county, at least once, and a goodly number of them several times. I have been uniformly received with kindness and cordiality by both the teachers and patrons of the schools. I have made many suggestions in regard to the conduct and management of the schools, and each suggestion has been carefully considered, and in nearly every instance promptly adopted and faithfully carried out. One very serious obstacle to the progress of the country schools has been the frequent change of teachers. I think in the future this will be avoided to a very considerable extent. I have especially urged upon the directors the importance not only of obtaining good teachers, but that they should be employed for a longer time, by the year, and from year to year. Another obstacle has been the want of proper co-operation between the teachers and the officers, and between the latter and their constituents. To overcome these and other difficulties, and to stimulate parents and children, and teachers to greater effort, in addition to my other labors I have delivered a number of lectures in different parts of the county. These lectures were delivered in the evenings, have been well attended, and I believe, at least hope, some good has been accomplished thereby.

NUMBER ATTENDING SCHOOL.

There are at present 4,998 children between 4 and 20 years of age in the county. Of this number there were enrolled in the public schools 3,396, and in the private schools 615; not attending any school, 1,096,—the latter number being greatly in excess of what it should be. One year ago, as appears from the last annual report of my worthy predecessor, Rev. T. L. Eliot, there were 4,798 children in the county between 4 and 20 years of age and a total enrollment in public schools of 2,765; in private schools, 707; not attending any school, 1,279; from which it will be seen that while the number of proper school age has increased but 200, the number attending the public schools has grown 631, and at the same time the number in private schools has been diminished by 92—thus showing the growing popularity of the public schools. It will be observed, too, that although the number of proper school age is 200 more than one year ago, yet the number not attending any school is 183 less. And the average attendance this year, when compared with last, is not less gratifying. Last year the average attendance was 1,746, while it has now risen to 2,018,—being an increase during the year of 272.

The number of legal voters, the number of children of school age, the number enrolled, the average attendance in both public and private schools, the number not attending any school, the number of teachers employed, etc., by districts, will fully appear from exhibit B, hereto attached. These facts when taken in connection with the present condition of the schools (which is one of general prosperity and progress), affords not only pleasure to the patrons of the public schools, but it gives encouragement to the lovers of liberty and the friends of free government; for we can only hope to preserve our liberty and transmit to posterity our free institutions by liberally educating the present generation.

When I began writing this report it was my purpose to call your attention particularly to the schools in this city, and also to several in the country, that deserve special mention, but owing to the undue length already attained I deem it best to defer these matters for the present. Yours respectfully,

J. J. BROWNE,
Sup't Multnomah County.

COMMON COUNCIL.

REGULAR MEETING—APRIL 18, 1877.

Last evening a regular meeting of the Common Council was held at the chamber.

His Honor Mayor Chapman being absent, Councilman Blumauer was chosen president.

W. S. Caldwell, auditor and clerk, present, and Chief Lappeus in attendance. The following members were present: Andrus, Blumauer, Corbett, Lambert, Stemme, Stephens, Wiley.

Absent—Farrington, Skidmore.

Minutes of last special meeting read and approved.

PETITIONS.

From L. Besser, calling attention to the fact that teamsters were in the habit of driving in a trot across the toll bridge on South Front street and asking to have the same prevented, as it was likely to damage the structure. The petition was referred to the committee on streets and public property.

REPORTS.

From the committee on judiciary, to whom was referred the petition of W. W. Piper, relating to the extension of N. Ninth street. Committee reported adversely to the prayer of the petitioner, and recommended that further consideration of the same be indefinitely postponed. Filed.

From the viewers of the proposed extension of Clay street. Report read and referred to the committee on streets and public property.

CLAIMS.

The following claims against the city were ordered paid: Standard $3 50, OREGONIAN Publishing Company $125 55, Geo. H. Himes $7, Portland Gaslight Co. $10 95, H. Lueg $4, J. R. Brigham $1, E. Graham $2, B. Latham $13 42, P. G. Baker $1,144 33.

ORDINANCES.

From the committee on streets and public property, ordinance providing for the time and manner of improving Jefferson street from Seventh to Twelfth streets. Read three times and passed.

Same committee—Ordinance declaring probable cost of improving South Second street, from Sherman to Sheridan; read third time and passed.

Same committee—Making appropriation for the improvement of South Second street, from Sherman to Sheridan; read third time and passed.

Same committee—Declaring probable cost of improving Morrison street, from Fifth to Sixth; read third time and passed.

Same committee—Making an appropriation for the improvement of Morrison street, from Fifth to Sixth.

Same committee—Providing for the time and manner of improving Madison street from Seventh to Eighth; read third time and passed.

Same committee—Providing for the time and manner of improving Hall street from Seventh to Eighth; read third time and passed.

Same committee—Providing for the time and manner of improving West Park street from Hall to Salmon; read three times and passed.

Same committee—Providing for the time and manner of improving East Park street from Hall to Salmon; read three times and passed.

An ordinance making an appropriation for the lateral extension or widening of Second street; read and laid over.

An ordinance making an appropriation out of the Police Fund; read and passed.

An ordinance making an appropriation for the extension of North Nineteenth street; read and passed.

An ordinance designating the newspaper in which to do the city printing came up on its third reading and was lost by the following vote, five being required to pass the ordinance: Yeas—Blumauer, Lambert, Stephens, Wiley. Nays—Andrus, Corbett, Stemme.

On motion Council adjourned.

So far during the week the disturbed condition of affairs abroad has had some effect to strengthen [illegible] in local financial circles, but no actual advance has taken place. The demand for loanable capital shows a moderate increase for the past few days, but as yet the supply is ample to meet it. The aggregate of applications for accommodations, however, is reported to be less than usual at this period in the season.

Business matters are moving forward in the customary channels with but little increase so far this week. A number of merchants from the interior are supplying themselves with spring stocks. They find ample opportunities here to secure everything adapted to the wants of the trade, and very generally express themselves satisfied as to the treatment which they receive at the hands of the merchants of Portland. The volume of business in this line has seldom if ever been greater than at present, and an encouraging fact connected with it is that the growth is of a character that gives assurance of its permanency.

The slight indications of a decline in the wheat markets at San Francisco yesterday produced but [illegible] here, as but few local buyers are now [illegible] any attention to the present working of the [illegible] being more anxious as to the future, when [illegible] of the next crop will be in the market. Farm at Public Sale.

WE WILL OFFER FOR SALE, on the PREMises, on Thursday, April 19th, 1877, at two o'clock P. M., two hundred acres of the Talbot Farm. The improvements consist of a house, barn, outhouses, good orchard, and it is all under fence, and nearly all plow land. There is just enough timber for farm purposes; running water on the farm. It is situated eight miles southwest of McMinnville, and is one of the choicest pieces of land in Yamhill county. Certificate furnished from reliable attorneys that the title is perfect. Terms—part cash, balance on time, secured by mortgage on the farm. For particulars see

DeLASHMUTT & OATMAN.

Notice is hereby given that I have just received a full Power of Attorney from George Talbot to transact any and all business for him.

Incorporated Feb. 23, 1877. Capital Stock, $500,000.

Location of Mines, Camp Creek, Wasco Co., Oregon.

THE ABOVE COMPANY HAVING BEEN FORMed for the purpose of opening and developing what is believed to be one of the richest mines in modern discovery, is now offering for sale a limited amount of Stock, the proceeds of which will be immediately expended in the purchase and forwarding of machinery with which to operate in this new field. The company have about thirty acres in the richest portion of the mines, and have no doubt as to the richness of their claims, having thoroughly prospected them. Specimens can be seen at our authorized agents. Only a small amount of Stock will be offered to the public, as only enough will be disposed of to enable the Company to commence active operations. For the present those desirous of purchasing can do so at the office of PARRISH & CORNELL, Front street, east side, between Alder and Washington, one door south O'Connor's store, who are our authorized agents.
